

MIND SWEEPER COVER HISTORY

By Deborah O'Toole

Mind Sweeper has a relatively short cover history as the story idea was developed rather quickly, and was written in less than a year.

(Above): First and second book covers for "Mind Sweeper."

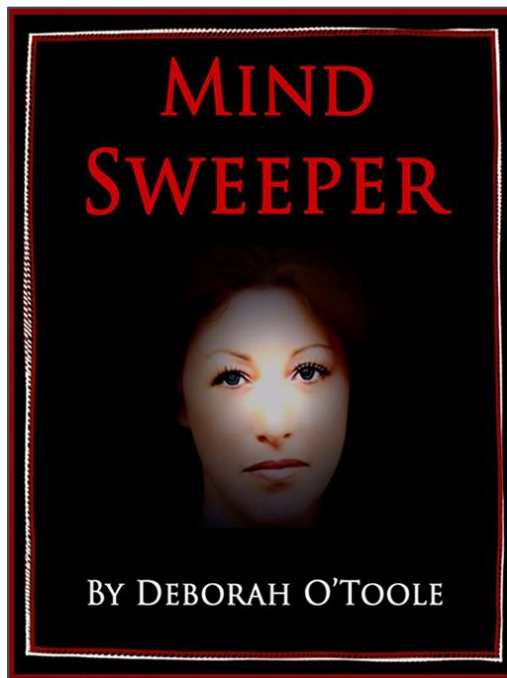

It was a bit difficult to decide on a cover concept for Mind Sweeper. The story is somewhat unique, not really typical of any fictional genre.

This cover almost made the final cut:

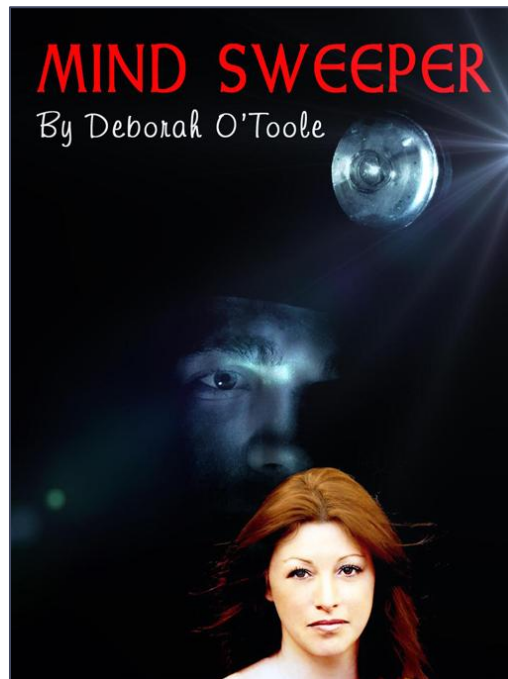

(Above): Alternate book cover for "Mind Sweeper."

This was the working cover for quite awhile:

But in the end, I chose the following:

The cover model photo was taken by Arlen Roche. I have to admit, after choosing the final cover for Mind Sweeper, I began to envision the main character (Beth Mills) exactly as she is depicted.

Deborah O'Toole

<https://deborahotoole.com/>